

BEST PIZZA Bagby Pizza Company

When Bagby Pizza introduced its brick-oven pies in 2009, it apparently lit a fire of desire in its patrons. At press time, the restaurant's website claimed to have sold 40,205 pizzas since then. And we've probably devoured quite a few of that number ourselves. Our go-to is the "Sweet and Spicy Pizza" for its melange of flavors: spicy tomato sauce, roasted red peppers, red onion, spinach, applewood bacon, and Asiago and goat cheeses, drizzled with balsamic vinegar. While most pies come in 10-inch and 14-inch rounds, slices of cheese or pepperoni are available, too. There's something for every appetite.
